

Terry Helling

May 16, 1958 - June 8, 2019

Terry Lee Helling, age 61 of Moore, passed away Saturday, June 08, 2019. He was born May 16, 1958 in Fort Leonard Wood, MO, the oldest of three sons born to Robert Neil Helling and Charlotte Elaine (Wegley) Helling. He was raised primarily in North Dakota, and it was there he met Cindy Weyrauch. They married young and to this union two children, son Adam and daughter Amber were born. Terry worked most of his life in construction, mainly as a carpenter. He later worked as a civilian for the United States Air Force in project management. He married Susanne (Morris) Helling, traveling to Alaska and California before returning to their home, Oklahoma. He's taken many chances, lived a full life and always done things his way. He later met Rose Alimpoos, who was by his side through final days. He will be dearly missed! He was preceded in death by: His parents, Robert Helling and Charlotte Hedrick. Terry is survived by: Son, Adam Helling and Kimberly; Daughter, Amber Becker and Chad; Two brothers, David Helling and Scott Helling; Companion, Rose Alimpoos and A host of other family and friends.