“ To be connected to Tom Andrews as a wife, child, grandchild, or friend, was truly a blessing. It seems the term “get r done” was made for Tom. His work ethic was second to none, but along with that seriousness, there was always humor too, he always made me laugh. I am better for knowing Tom, he was a great example of what a man is meant to be. He will live on through generations of Andrews.....Rest in Peace friend....job well done!!

“ Tommy's favorite topic was searching for the meaning of the Bible. We talked on regular basis for the last few years. Farming, trucking, family, and life in general. We laughed about us not knowing what we were doing a good position of our life. One of the hardest questions I ever asked Tommy was: what was his favorite book in the Bible? He named one then slowly about six more then gave up. He had read so much and loved all the books of the Bible he couldn't pick just one. I will think of Tommy often with joyful memories. Tommy spoke about being thankful for all the help at home the last few months from his kids, family, and neighbors.
