

Tom L. Samples

July 27, 1955 - June 26, 2017

Tom L. Samples age 61 of Noble, passed away Monday, June 26, 2017 at Norman Regional Hospital. He was born July 27, 1955 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Tom was one of eight children raised by parents Georgia Ellen (Wesley) Hanna and Elmer Hanna. Tom grew up in the Noble area and attended Noble Schools. He learned how to work hard as a young boy and continued that same work ethic throughout his life. He loved working with his hands and working in the outdoors. He worked most all of his life as a concrete finisher. Tom first married Karen Cox and together they had two sons, Johnny and Joey. Years later he married Debbie Gilbert and together they had two daughters, Jamie and Lori. Tom raised his children up in the Noble area and remained living there all of his life. He was an avid fisherman, he enjoyed catching bass and sand bass, but his favorite type of fishing was trotline fishing for catfish. Throughout his life he enjoyed raising a garden and tinkering on things around the home. He loved his family and especially loved the times when they had cookouts and grilled outdoors. He was preceded in death by: Parents, Elmer and Georgia Hanna, Wife, Debbie Samples, Brothers, Jerry Hanna, Brother-in-law, Charlie Guess, Sister-in-law, Anita Samples; He is survived by: Four children, Johnny Samples and wife Jennifer of Norman, Joey Samples and wife Felicia of Noble, Jaime Mccane and husband Mike of Edmond, Lori Baze of Noble; Four brothers, Ezekial Samples of Noble, Sam Samples Jr. of Noble, Elmer Hanna Jr of Noble, Bill Hanna of Noble, Three sisters, Amanda Robinett and husband David of Macomb, Lillian Guess of Macomb, Judy Brown of Macomb; 9 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren; And many nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of friends. Funeral services will be 2:00 pm Friday, June 30, 2017 at Wilson-Little Funeral Home Chapel in Purcell. Interment will be at Banner Cemetery, east of Slaughterville, OK.