“ day after day it tears me apart knowing i don't have my other half here. i want you to know you are missed & loved dearly. i sit back & think of all the times i told you "no you can't drive my cars" because all you wanted to do was hot rod it & now i look back & say it would've been worth the fix for you to hot rod all of them one time 😞. the little jokes & comments we always made are stuck in memory. i'm glad your dancing, racing, laughing, comforting loved ones & much more in heaven, im glad your with my baby dog frankie as well, y'all were bonded for the 3 days i let y'all babysit.

although you didn't like getting lectured by anyone, but i'm glad don got to sit with you & hangout with you handful of times, man talks & brother to brother talks & teach you things while y'all were around each other. he still till this day thinks about you & brings things up about you.

you will be missed forever & always, we love you beyond words 💙

“ I may have known Trevor only a short time, but he was always polite-even when I woke him up earlier than I'm sure he wanted! I had prayed he would fully recover and his future surgeries would be successful. I was so saddened to hear of his passing. I pray he is at peace. Billie- my heart breaks for you and your family.....I cannot fathom the depth of pain and loss you are feeling. I pray you find the comfort and strength that you need each day. Sincerely, Teresa

“ My heart is broken. Trevor was such a sweet, funny kid. He was there for Dominic through so many difficult times and I will always be grateful to him. I loved him and treasure all the time he and Jackie spent at our home. The three of them had so much fun together.
My love and prayers go out to Billie & Courtney. May God comfort you.

“ Our family would like to offer our condolences. My husband coached Trevor a couple seasons in basketball. He was always a team player and we enjoyed every moment watching him grow in the game and in life. We will remember Trevor laughing and having fun on the court with his friends. We pray that the lord will give you peace as he walks hand in hand with your beautiful son.

There are just no words. None. Although I never met your precious Trevor, I have a son the exact same age and I cannot even begin to wrap my mind around your unimaginable, profound grief. As mother, I cry tears of sorrow with your family. You all are in my continued prayers.

“ Although I never personally met this young man, I feel I know him well through his sweet mom Billie. I know he will be missed forever. It is a mystery why his days were numbered so few, something we will never understand, but thankful for 18 years of memories that will always be alive. My love and prayers to the family, and extra for you Billie 🙏❤️

“ Dearest Billie, sister Debra, James, Courtney, and family. Our prayers, thoughts, and love have been with you from the moment Debra called to tell of this painful loss. I thought of Trevor being caught up in his grandma Pam's loving arms and in his grandpa Larry's loving arms and even better being welcomed into the loving arms of our Lord and Savior as He said well done thou good and faithful servant. Welcome home. While it is hard for us to endure such a devastating loss we are called to trust on the Lord with all our hearts and to move forward in faith, trusting in Him to see us through. I believe your faith will get you through each day but it is going to be so painful. Know that our love and prayers are with you all. So sorry we are sick and can't be with you during this time. God bless you. We are praying for answers for you and peace that passes understanding. We loved Trevor and were honored to pray for him so earnestly last year as he suffered so much. We love each one of you, our family.
In His Love, Aunt Sandra and Uncle Mickey.
