(Jenkins) Chambers. She spent her early years in Ada and later started school in Shawnee. Eventually, the Chambers family would settle in Purcell in 1966. Yevonne met a young service man. His name was Larry D. Newville from Lexington, OK, and on June 8, 1967, they were married. Together, they would raise their only son, Sean. In the beginning they traveled a bit, following Larry's work, but moved back home to the Newville family homestead east of Lexington. She worked for Pritchett's Jewelry in Purcell for a number of years and later at Zales in Norman.
